

Duane Peters has served the residents of Brazos County as an elected official for nearly twenty-eight years. Prior to beginning his first term as County Judge in January 2011, Judge Peters served as a County Commissioner for eight years and as a Constable for ten years. He has a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from Texas A&M University. Judge Peters and his wife, Bettie, reside in Brazos County. They have four daughters and eight grandchildren. When Judge Peters is not at the County Administration Building, he enjoys spending time with his family on the family ranch.
