

Barry Moore was appointed by Governor Greg Abbot as the presiding officer of the Brazos County RMA in February of 2021 and was confirmed by the Texas Senate in the 87th Legislative Session. He is a founding partner of Stafford Barrett Commercial Brokerage and a third generation Brazos County resident. He lives in College Station with his wife Morgan and their four children.